

Paula McGee * Willabelle Willowtree A Woodland Elf Princess

Friday & Saturday #2D3

2 Day Workshop

9am-4 or 4:30pm

Workshop – Cloth * Size 28 inches

Level: Beginner with sewing skills and up

No sewing machine in class if homework is done

Pre class work – Yes
Kit Fee $10.00

Paula's dolls are very involved. There's lots to learn and because of this you will need all the class time to learn these techniques. Paula will require that you sew all the body parts and clothing at home. This means you need to be able to sew on your own. The magic happens in class. You'll be assembling the body and prepping the face for the stylized detail flat face drawing. You will add learn how to stuff and wire the neck, hands and body. Paula will be teaching the extremely detailed needle sculpted hands in this class along with drawing and painting life like nails. Paula will teach you how to add the hair and make the base of the crown. You will add the clothing, corset, pantalets and start dressing the doll. Adding Floral lace petals for embellishments on the corset will add a finished detail to your Elf Princess.

Supply list is on the next page.

Paula McGee * Weeping Willabelle Willowtree

Homework supplies:

Fabric for body– a pretty batik or leafy/vine print for body & legs – about 1/3 yard (she has long legs),

any flesh tone for her head & arms -1/4 yard

Stuff legs and body

Corset 1/4 yard or tapestry fabric sample is enough for this corset

Pantalettes – 1/4 yard or equivalent of linen or a lovely textured fabric.

Bring to Class Supplies:

Your finished homework, 1 cup of sand or pebbles to weight the dolls body, stuffing, white Chenille Stems, silk flowers, die cut paper scrolls and flourishes (you can find multipacks in scrapbooking section of craft store), Stuffing (NOT POLYFIL, Morning Glory Premium is my favorite) Prismacolor pencils, pens - .005 or fine tips in black and sepia, White acrylic paint, Krylon Clear Acrylic Sealer Spray, Lace

Kit: $10.00

For crown - grapevine wire, various beads, glitter, glue