Thursday After Dusk!

Hat and Heels Banquet starts at 6:30 pm. Crazy zany hats, lovely antique demure hats, and of course homemade hats! Prizes awarded for elegance and creativity. You may ask, are hats and heels required? The heels not so much but come without a hat at your own risk. Fun, Food, Friends and Laughter. There will be jokesters, games and prizes.

Instructors Sales After the banquet the festivities continue, the teachers will set up sales tables. They will have patterns, dolls, frills and supplies for the Thursday evening finale event.

Friday evening shop until you drop!

Shoppers Madness Night Opens Early! You will delight in a bountiful supply of beads, yarns, patterns, doll making products, lace, trims and doll accessories. We have extended the hours from the time class lets out until after the exhibit hall closes for the night. This means more time to shop. Not to mention you have all day Saturday and half of Sunday!

Old Fashioned Ice Cream Social A special treat will be set up, an ice cream parlor. Enjoy your ice cream after your shopping. Get yourself settled to enjoy the bidding at the Celebrity Auction.

Don't be Late! Celebrity Auction: Teachers and Professional artist dolls will be donated for this special live auction. The auction helps cover the cost of Scholarships and miscellaneous expenses. If you decide to donate a celebrity doll to the Celebrity auction be sure it is signed or has a tag by the professional artist.

Awards for the Challenge immediately follows the Auction.

Exhibit Room opens Friday Night! Professional Exhibit: We have a special surprise for you this year! The teachers are putting up a challenge of their own. I think you will love it! We will continue the Professional exhibit sales tables of art work of the instructors throughout the convention as we did last year.

Exhibit by students - Just for Fun So many artistic figures are not seen by others and they should be. We ask that students are limited to 3 dolls per student for this exhibit. Please bring your Art Dolls. Make sure that all props are secured. The public comes in on Saturday and Sunday to view the exhibit room! Show your work off and be a star! You can still bring dolls in for the Challenge and Club.

Challenge "Mondays Child!" This is really fun this year check out the Challenge Page.

Club Doll Displays Information for Club dolls is on page 22, Did your group have a challenge? Or do you just want to show off what you can do? We want to see what your club is up to.

Section II Saturday Evening—Muses on the Prowl!

Special VIP day pass for non-students for this fun filled day and Evening. This year we have Special VIP passes to see the demos and more for this night! For people that can't attend the classes and just want to visit and join the day and evening events. See the Ala Carte Listing

Sales Booths These booths are open during the day and through the early evening. Continue to shop, and visit all the vendors.

Demo, Hors d'oeuvres and more fun stuff! More demos than you can possibly imagine. Can you see all of them, probably not? We wanted you to be able to pick and choose the demos that are of interest to you. This night was designed to let you pick and choose what kind of fun you want to have, watch demos, shop or just visit and have fun.

Sign up for a Demo table. This is what we call or Give a little Get a little night. Anyone that demo's something can also sell items at their table. Sell some of your treasures or handmade items at the same table. Contact us if you are interested If you want to volunteer for a demo so I can put you on the list! We want to list your demo and name on a special pamphlet cyndy@cyndysdolls.com

Izzy Trading Night— Friday during the day bring any items you would like to purge from your stash. We will put up special tables to put them on. Now it is your turn, we will have bags for you to renew your stash with new stuff. Just clean out the old and find new old treasures.

Up till Midnight for Crazy Doll Makers. Spoon Angel: This is for crazy doll makers: you know who you are! The River City Figurative Artist Club, from Cincinnati, Ohio will be teaching a fun Make it and Take it “Spoon Angel”. All levels of doll makers can participate. It goes till, well maybe not Midnight but you can stay up as long as you like. Class is free. You will be required to pay a $5.00 kit fee to cover the club material cost.

Silent Auction Two Days! Friday and Saturday

Silent Auction This Auction is supported by you the doll students and artists. We take anything doll related, books, dolls, new supplies and or exotic fabrics, anything you think might be worth bidding on. We always get some really cool items. The Silent auction supports the scholarships and miscellaneous expenses. We are proud that you care so much about others to give them this experience. Each day new dolls will be put out on the bidding table during the day for the auction. I would like to thank you in advance for your donations. We are delighted that you help make someone's dream possible.

Entertainment at 7:30—8:30

Stephen Hollen * Storyteller as Mark Twain

Stephen Hollen is a humorist, storyteller, performer, writer and poet... and a Mark Twain Impersonator. Stephen became a "Twainiac" some time ago when he began to read Twain's books. The irony and wit Twain as a Humorist had as he appeared on stage shows forth easily in his speeches and lectures. Stephen's early influences as a humorist arose from his childhood in the hills of Eastern Kentucky and his love for the richness of humorist like Twain and Will Rogers
