

ARTISTIC FIGURES IN CLOTH & CLAY CHALLENGE 2019

“Anthropomorphism”

What is Anthropomorphism?

Good question!

Easy answer, creating an animal acting in human characteristic.

There are many examples of this in Mythology, Religions,

Books, Fairy tales, cartoons, and better yet imaginary animal in a human characteristic manner of your own making.

Examples you might recognize:

Mythology -Chinese Monkey King Warrior

Religion- Hindu Elephant Ganesh

Books: The Cowardly Lion from Wizard of Oz

Fairy tales: Peter Rabbit

Cartoons: Jiminy Cricket

1. There are two categories Original Design and Doll Patterns/adaptions of pattern.
2. All entries must be the work of the exhibitor.
3. There is no size limit
4. You may use a pattern just note the designer on the identification tag when checking in.
5. There are two categories: Original Designs * Art Doll patterns with or without adaptations.
6. Only one entry is permitted per person.
7. A $5.00 fee is charged for all entries (this helps off set the prize money awarded)
8. All props must be attached. If items are not attached are not responsible for loss of props.
9. Dolls may be carried in by exhibitor or exhibitor's friend on April 25, 2019
10. All figures must be picked up between 4:00 PM and 5:00 PM Sunday, April 28, 2019. We cannot be responsible for dolls left after 5:30PM.
11. Pictures will be taken of all the art work. We do not restrict our visitors from taking pictures.

Judging: Two Categories: Original Design and Doll patterns/adaptations

Judging is based on originality, workmanship, overall visual impact and creative implementation of the challenge

Ribbons & Cash awarded for:

1st $35.00 * 2nd $25.00 * 3rd $15.00 * People's Choice $25.00

What was the inspiration behind the Challenge?

It is always important to me to appeal to everyone's artistic nature, allowing each artist the freedom to create. The field is wide open on your creations. Plus, you will be working outside the human figure's general dimensions. I wanted to give a challenge without crushing your artistic imagination. I think this will be awesome display of creative thinking and artistic ability. I can't wait to see your entries.